By Associated Press. Pittsburg, Dec. 20 .- J. E. Elliot, a school director, created a sensation at the Washington county school directors' annual convention last night by advocating in a public speech, and appealing to a member of the legislature present, for legislation taxing bacheors to secure a school pension fund.

Dr. W. W. Sprouls, of Houston, was the legislator, and Mr. Elliot directed his remarks to him, saying that he felt certain the legislature would pass a measure taxing bachelors over 40 years old to establish a pension fund for superannuated teachers.

The directors also passed a resolution adopting the method of withholding a month's salary from the women teachers, to prevent their leaving their position to marry.

Last evening about 7 29 o'clock Rev. P. P. Bussart and family experienced a genuine surprise. A large rep resentation of St. Paul's congregation havinged the penceful damicile of the pastor, on west High street, and by rowding in at both the from door and he back door, completely overwhelm d the occupants of the bothe.

After the immediate effects of the surprise had been thoroughly enjoyed ia ... Me. William Fish made an aprepriate address, at the viose of which he presented the pastor with the commissary department in the kitchen and a well-filled narse to make hristmas happy.

Rev. Bossart accepted the gifts in a eeling reply and referred to the happy condition of unity in the bearts of the constregation.

Hon, Isaac S. Motter closed this parof the formal program in a neat speech. After a very pleasant evening and general Christmas good cheer, the gathering dispursed, after wishing the pastor, Mrs. Bossart and the children Merry Christmas and a happy New

LONG ILLNESS

Of Louis VanPelt Ended Last Night.

Heart Trouble Causes Death of a Venerable and Aged Citizen.

HIS LATE HOME

Veteran Shoemaker Died With Loved Ones at Bedside.

Remains Will Be Taken to Sylvania, Ohio, For Interment.

The venerable Louis Van Pelt, of 121 south Union street, whose serious illness has been mentioned a number of times in the local press during the past two weeks, passed peacefully to eternal rest last night at 10 o'clock, death relieving his sufferings after a severe illness of about six weeks dura-

Most of the members of the aged man's family were at the bedside when the end came, and while the inevitable did not occur at an unexpected time, it was nevertheless a severe shock to the members of the family who are now left parentless, the beloved mother having preceded the father to the future world three years ago. Mr. Van Pelt had been in failing health during the past two years, but his condition did not assume a serious nature until six weeks ago, when he was stricken with heart trouble.

Louis Worrels Van Pelt was born in Pittsburg. Pa., on November 26, 1828. He came to Lima about 35 years ago. coming to this city from southern Ohio, after having been engaged in business as a shoe merchant in Cincinnati. During the years of his residence in this city he followed the occupation of an auctioneer and shoemaker, and there were few of the older citizens of Lima who were more generally or favorably known. He was honest and upright and was respected by all who knew him, and the sympathy of all is extended to the bereaved family.

The deceased is survived by two scus Floyd Van Pelt, a linotype operator in the Times-Democrat composing rooms, and Adrian Van Pelt, of, Nashville, Tenn., and four daughters-Mrs. Eva Burgess, of Bowling Green, O., and Misses Lalu, Edna and Vera Van Pelt, of this city. He also leaves one sister, Mrs. Jennie Cleveland, of Amelia, O., and three brothers, Messrs. John Van Pelt, of Riga, Mich., and Thomas and George Van Pelt, residing in northern Ohio.

The funeral will be held at the residence tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and on Saturday morning the family will take the remains to Sylvania, O., near Toledo, for interment. The services will be conducted by the Rev. Mr. Arnold, pastor of the United Brethren church.
